WORK EXPERIENCE

Intern for the Nantucket Historical Association December 2020- July 2021

- Supervisor: James Russel (james@nha.org)
- Research work that focuses on Basque and Dutch whaling
- Goal: Online exhibition

Student Intern for the Office of the President at HWS

2020-21

- Supervisor: Kathy Regan (regan@hws.edu)
- Research work for various projects such as Master's Degree programs in Business and Health and the status of other colleges regarding Covid-19
- Research work for Award Nominees for the Spring semester, for example the Blackwell Award, given to a pioneering woman and named after Elizabeth Blackwell
- This administrative position has allowed me to further understand how higher education institutions work. At the same time, it is a research position that has put my skills to work to develop them even further.

Student Worker for the William Smith Events Management Staff

2020-21

- Supervisor: Sally Scanton (scanton@hws.edu)
- Help with anything that the William Smith Athletics Department might need. Working at the Communications office allows me to learn about the broader view of athletics and its connections to other businesses and institutions.

Intern for the Davis Gallery at Hobart and William Smith Colleges Summer - Fall 2020

- Supervisor: Anna Wager (wager@hws.edu)
- Focused on gallery work such as cataloging and curating exhibitions
- Registrar work for newly arrived photographic collections
- Fall 2020 exhibition: 'Crafting Democracy' 5th edition, Davis Gallery at Houghton House
- Wrote wall labels and helped curate the Spring 2021 exhibition

Intern at Chillida-Leku Museum in San Sebastián June-July 2019

- I was able to learn and help out with the day-to-day within the newly reopened museum, now with the help of Hauser & Wirth. This museum was named as one of Time's World's Greatest places 2019.
- Responsibilities included: Ticket office, information office, guided tours, archive, museum education strategies, and preservation work.
- Supervisor: Maddi Lopez de Arkaute (lopezdearkaute.maddi@gmail.com)
- Hired through SEDENA.
